From

The Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General Department,

B a n g a l o r e

S i r ,

The District Judge and officer in charge of the Central Record Room of the Bangalore Division being of opinion that the transmission of the old registers to the Central Record Room under the instructions contained in addendum dated the 9th of June 1913 to Civil Rule of Practice No: 149 dated the 10th of July 1911 not only considerably increases the work of the Central Record Room Establishment but also causes much inconvenience to the public and also to the courts has suggested that the addendum may be amended and if that is not approved only such of the registers as are to be preserved permanently may be ordered to be sent to the Central Record Room, the other registers being retained in the respective courts and destroyed at the expiry of the time fixed in the rules. The opinions of the District Judges of Mysore and Shimoga were invited in the matter.

After considering the representations made by the District Judge of Bangalore and the opinions of the other two District Judges, the Judges of the Chief Court have arrived at the conclusion that registers may preferably be kept in their own courts until destroyed and that only permanent registers should

should be sent to the Central Record Room after they have ceased to be frequently referred to in their own court. They would therefore keep the permanent registers for fifteen years in their own court and then send them to the Central Record Room leaving all other registers to be retained in their own courts until destroyed. To this end they propose to issue the enclosed amendment to Rule of Practice No: 149 dated the 10th July 1911 as amended by addendum dated the 9th of June 1913, and I am directed to request that the Government may be pleased to accord their sanction to the proposal.

I have the honor to be,

S i r ,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Venkata Ranga Iyengar

For REGISTRAR.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Civil side.

Addendum et corrigendum dated August 1917 to Rule of Practice No: 149 dated the 10th July 1911, as amended by addendum dated the 9th of June 1913.

The Chief Court directs that for paragraph 27A of the said Rule of Practice the following be substituted -

Registers which are to be permanently retained, shall be retained for fifteen years after they are closed and shall then be sent to the Central Record Room. All other registers shall be retained in the court to which they belong, until the time arrives for their destruction.

A catalogue of permanent registers shall be kept in each Central Record Room, shewing (1) the name of the court to which the register belongs, (2) the number of volumes, (3) the nature of the registers and (4) the year or years to which they relate.

S. Venkata Ranga Iyengar.
